

Figurative Language

Figurative language is a tool that an author uses, to help the reader visualize, or see, what is happening in a story or poem.

Types of Figurative Language

Simile is a comparison using like or as. It usually compares two unlike objects.

Example: His feet are as big as boats. Feet and boats are being compared.

Metaphor states that one thing is something else. It is a comparison, but does NOT use like or as to make the comparison.

Example: Her hair is silk. Hair and silk are being compared.

PERSONIFICATION IS GIVING HUMAN QUALITIES, FEELINGS, ACTIONS, OR CHARACTERISTICS TO INANIMATE (NOT LIVING) OBJECTS.

Example: The house stared at me with looming eyes. The verb, stared, is a human action. A house is a non-living object. Therefore, we have a good example of personification.

Example: The ancient car groaned into first gear. The verb, _____, is a human action. A _____ is a non-living thing.

Onomatopoeia is the imitation of natural sounds in word form. These words help us form mental pictures, or visualize, things, people, or places that are described. Sometimes a word names a thing or action by copying the sound.

Example: Bong! Hiss Buzz!

Symbolism occurs when one thing stands for or represents something else.

Example: The dove symbolizes peace.

HYPERBOLE IS INTENTIONALLY EXAGGERATED FIGURES OF SPEECH.

Example: It was raining cats and dogs.

Imagery involves one or more of your five senses - the abilities to hear, taste, touch, smell, and see. An author uses a word or phrase to stimulate your memory of those senses and to help create mental pictures.

Idioms An expression that means something other than the literal meanings of its individual words. They are overused expressions.

Simile or Metaphor

Decide whether each sentence contains a simile or a metaphor. If it is a simile, write SIMILE and underline the two things being compared. If it is a metaphor, write METAPHOR and underline what is being compared. If the thing that the metaphor is being compared to is not written in the sentence then write what it is being compared to below.

1. The giant's steps were thunder as he ran toward Jack.

METAPHOR

2. The pillow was a cloud when I put my head upon it.

3. The bar of soap was a slippery eel during the dog's bath.

4. I felt like a cheetah when I ran the race.

SIMILE

5. Those boys are like two peas in a pod.

6. The Porsche crouched before the race, growling in anticipation.

METAPHOR - compares the Porsche to a big cat

7. Veronica lured him into her web.

Write your own simile.

Personification

The delicious smell of cookies pulled me into the kitchen.

"Follow Me"

For each sentence, circle the object being personified and underline the verb.

1. The wind sang her mournful song through the falling leaves.
2. The microwave timer told me it was time to eat my TV dinner.
3. The china danced on the shelves during the earthquake.
4. The rain kissed my cheeks as it fell.
5. The daffodils nodded their yellow heads at the walkers.
6. The snow whispered as it fell to the ground during the early morning hours.

Personify the following sentences. Change the words in parentheses to words that would describe a human's actions.

1. The puppy (barked) when I left for school.
2. The leaf (fell) from the tree.
3. The CD player (made a noise).
4. The arrow (moves) across the screen.
5. The net (moves) when the basketball goes through.

Onomatopoeia

Onomatopoeia is the formation or use of words, such as buzz, that imitate the sounds associated with the objects of action to which they refer.

Next to each word write what sound it makes.

Car- VROOOM!

Clock-

Heart-

Broken down car-

Slamming door-

Lips-

Sand under shoe-

Alarm clock-

Boots walking slowly-

Heels walking quickly-

Wind blowing through trees-

Pencil on paper-

Symbolism

Symbolism is using one thing (a symbol) to stand for or represent something else.

A symbol can be anything that stands for something else. Symbols are everywhere!!! Symbols can represent feelings, math, countries, religions, people, sports, or words. Authors use symbols to represent ideas in their writing.

Some Common Symbols:

Draw 5 symbols including what the symbols represent.

Symbols in writing...

She never spoke as she slid across the room. Her eyes narrowed as she stepped pass the dinner table. No one dared to look her in the eyes now. The crowded room parted to allow the woman in red to pass by. The whole room grew quiet. The only sound was her red dress swishing as a warning to those in her path.

What might the color red symbolize in this example: _____

The air grew cold as the black night set in. The young man began to panic. He must stay warm some how. As he looked through the snow covered hills he began to understand... there was no escape. As this thought became clear the shadow of night surrounded him into a deep sleep.

What might the "shadow of night" mean? _____

Hyperbole

© Mark Parisi, Permission required for use.

Hyperbole is intentionally exaggerated figures of speech. They are used to emphasize a point, add excitement or humor and are often used with sarcasm. Examples of hyperbole can occur in similes and metaphors.

Examples:

1. He was so tired that he could have slept for a month.
2. The water was a million feet deep.
3. I'm so hungry I could eat a horse.
4. She was as slow as a sloth on a hot day.

Write 1 hyperbole sentences of your own for each item listed.

(weather)

(school)

(car)

(cheetah)

Imagery

Imagery is writing that appeals to the 5 senses (sight, touch, taste, smell, sound) to help create mental pictures.

Examples:

(From "The Night before Christmas")

The children were nestled, all snug in their beds,
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads.

The reader can feel the warmth and taste and see the candy.

In the next example, underline words that appeal to sound and smell.

The salty, thick air was filled with sinister, rumbling clouds as the storm approached.

Write 3-5 sentences that use the 5 senses to create a mental picture. Write the sense above the words you use. If you can't think of anything to describe, describe the boys' bathroom, your toothbrush, or chewing gum.

Idioms

To stick your neck out is to say or do something that is bold and a bit dangerous. A similar idiom that is used for slightly more dangerous situations is to "go out on a limb." In both idioms, the idea is that you put yourself in a vulnerable position.

To break the ice is to be the first one to say or do something, with the expectation that others will then follow. Another idiom that means something similar is "get the ball rolling."

To get long in the tooth means to get old. The expression was originally used when referring to horses since gums recede with age. So the longer the teeth a horse has, the older it is said to be.

To have a chip on one's shoulder is usually an expression to describe a person who acts, as you say, rudely or aggressively, but also in a manner that could be described as "aggressively defensive." The person seems always ready for a fight.

Directions: Write the meanings of these frequently used idioms:

1. going bananas _____
2. see eye to eye _____
3. under the weather _____
4. stuffed to the gills _____
5. just what the doctor ordered _____
6. born yesterday _____

As the sun peaked over the horizon, Andy Allen and Amy Atwater were already headed for the lake. Today was the Lucky Lure fishing tournament, and they wanted to be at their favorite spot early. As their truck rounded the last bend in the road, they spotted the lake. The aqua-blue water was a shiny mirror. What a perfect day for fishing!

As quick as a wink, Andy launched the boat in the water while Amy sorted the rods and reels. Andy gunned the engine and the boat shot off like a rocket. But as they came around the corner, Andy and Amy spied another boat at their favorite fishing spot! Their hearts dropped like rocks, and they knew they were in a pickle.

"Where will we fish?" Andy asked Amy.

"Sit tight," Amy replied. "I think I may have another trick up my sleeve." Amy directed Andy to a small cove on the other side of the lake. Lily pads floated like saucers on the water and birds chirped cheerfully all around them. Andy picked up his rod and cast it toward the moss-covered bank. Kerplunk! The lure splashed into the water. Before Andy had time to blink, his line began to zing. He had a fish!

"Amy!" hollered Andy excitedly. "Lend me a hand and grab the net!" Andy reeled and reeled but the fish fought him tooth and nail. Andy began sweating bullets. He knew the tournament victory would depend on this catch.

"Andy, you lucky dog," exclaimed Amy. "You caught a whale of a fish! You're sure to win the tournament now."

"But you helped me catch him," replied Andy. "We'll share the prize." Amy and Andy zoomed back to the dock to weigh their fish and claim the prize: a Lucky Lure fishing hat and a T-shirt.

"Wow! What a wonderful day," said Andy as they drove home. "But I'm exhausted!"

"Me too," Amy said with a yawn. "But let's come back tomorrow and see if there are any more whales in that cove!"
